

February at Louisa May Alcott's Orchard House

Very special events to warm your heart and celebrate the human spirit!

Celebrate Black History Month

Join us as we honor the involvement of the Alcotts in the Abolition movement! Thematic tours will highlight the thoughts and emotions of the Alcotts about slavery, the Civil War, and educating blacks during Reconstruction, as penned in their personal diaries and letters. Learn how committed this extraordinary family was to the cause of freedom, and discover how their legacy stills inspire social justice today.

Tours offered during regular hours of operation and at regular admission rates

“A Valentine Party with Louisa May Alcott”

Saturday, February 14th 3:00 - 5:00 p.m.

If you are young, or just young-at-heart (ages 6 to 106!), bring your loved ones to share in games, crafts, stories, refreshments, and a very special tour of Orchard House, all aimed at understanding the many ways Victorians celebrated “Love’s Own Day.”

Hosted by the lady of the house, “Louisa May Alcott,” as portrayed by Orchard House Executive Director Jan Turnquist.

Cost: $18 per person (Members, $15)

Reservations and pre-payment required as space is limited to only 15 persons

Family Fun Vacation Week!

“Welcome to Our Home”

Tuesday - Friday, February 17th - 20th 1:00 - 2:00 p.m. daily

Travel back in time and meet the Alcotts or one of their notable neighbors during an interactive “living history” tour of Orchard House. Anecdotes and information are culled directly from the Alcotts’ own personal recollections in diaries and letters, and your authentically costumed guide will provide a uniquely first-person perspective.

Great for families and anyone who wants to learn more about this fascinating family.

Cost: Adults, $12; Seniors/Students, $10; Youths (ages 6-17), $8; Children (ages 2-6), $4 (Members, ½ off individual prices). Family Rate (2 Adults & up to 4 Youths), $30

Reservations and pre-payment recommended, as space is limited
