Old-Fashioned Fun Week!

February School Vacation Programs at Louisa May Alcott's Orchard House

Tuesday - Friday, February 20th - 23rd 9:30 - 11:30 a.m. daily

Boys and girls ages 8-12 are invited to try their hand at simple Alcott-era 19th century-style crafts. Learn to make old-fashioned gifts for friends and family for holidays and other special occasions! Design a rustic birdfeeder, quilt a potholder, decorate a bandbox, and make your own Orchard House T-Shirt, all in one week!

Costs: Full Week - $100; Per Diem - $30 (Orchard House Members, $80 & $24 respectively)

Space limited to 15 youths! Reservations & pre-payment required; phone 978.369.4118 x106 for further information & reservations

Fun Week details ...

Tuesday, February 20th - Rustic Gourd Birdfeeder

Construct a rustic birdfeeder from nature, just as the Alcott girls may have done! Create and take home your own birdfeeders fashioned from real gourds to help keep our feathered friends happy and well-fed through the Winter!

Wednesday, February 21st - Quilted Potholders

Make a gift for your favorite cook, and learn sewing skills at the same time using the old-fashioned art of quilting!

Thursday, February 22nd - Design Your Own Tee

Stencil or create your own design on a T-Shirt to take home for yourself or give as a gift! (Bring your own plain white Tee, or, we'll provide one for a small additional fee)

Friday, February 23rd - Decorative Victorian Bandbox

Design and decorate a Victorian bandbox, just as May Alcott -- the life-real counterpart of "Amy March" -- might have done!

Also enjoy Family Fun from 1:00 - 2:00 p.m. daily!

"Welcome to Our Home" - A Living History Tour

Take a trip into the past on an interactive tour with a costumed guide portraying an Alcott family member or one of their famous friends. Hear fascinating anecdotes and learn first-hand about their lives and times.

Adults - $10; Seniors/College Students - $9; Youths (6-17 years) - $7;

Under 6 - $3.50 (Members, ½ price on individual prices)

Family Rate (2 Adults & up to 4 Youths) - $25
